

KUD Pozitiv and DIC

Ivan Cankar Students' Home (DIC) is an educational institution for high school students coming from various parts of Slovenia and attending different high schools in Ljubljana. Students' Home provides appropriate learning conditions for successful education. It also enables student's quality spending of their free time and additional education. The special position in DIC belong to the group Pozitiv. The group act as developers and organizers of bigger and more complex youth exchange projects and projects from the field of culture and art. In the group operate number of mentors and experts of contemporary scene and visual arts, are working with youth (sub) culture and organization of different workshops for young people.

WEBSITE: <http://www.pozitiv.si>

WEBSITE: <http://w>

Group Pozitiv was formed in 1996 in Ivan Cankar student's home. Since the year 2000 the group Pozitiv is also organized as a non-governmental organization (NGO). The group deals mainly with projects on fields of (sub)culture, contemporary art and different performance arts: theatre, dance, video, digital and multimedia art. Since its beginnings the group has created many productions, which have achieved many awards and recognitions in Slovenia and abroad. Besides the authorial productions the group and NGO Pozitiv also act as developers and organizers of bigger and more complex youth exchange projects and projects from the field of culture and art. Special expertise field of the group, in which a number of mentors and experts of contemporary scene and visual arts operate, is working with youth (sub)culture and organization of different workshops for young people.