

Second death of Bruce Lee

JUMP TO FORUM DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SUGGESTED THEME The main topic is a question of statue as a symbol and a representation of an idea. The story is that the statue of Bruce Lee was put up as a symbol that would represent united values of all youth, regardless the 'sides' that they took during the war. It represents righteousness and justice, energy and striving towards a good goal. The statue in Mostar was ruined just few days after it was raised. We are going to pursue the questions that this situation opens, that are also connected with religion and ways it functions in an idea - symbol manifestations ...
